

OUR TOWNS

A24

Pulling tabs for charity

SHIRLEY. Maria Marks, front right, looks on at aluminum tabs that she and other William Floyd Elementary School students had collected and then brought to Gershow Recycling to be weighed. Along with a company match, the "Can Tab for Kids" program raised $2,000 for the Sunshine Fund at Stony Brook. The program was inspired by Marks, who was diagnosed with cancer when she was an infant. She is now in remission.

PHOTO BY JAMES CARBONE